

ASCD Presents: The Art and Science of Teaching

Presented by Judi Herm

The ISNA Education Forum is very pleased to welcome you to the content of Robert J. Marzano's most recent publication, The Art and Science of Teaching. Dr. Marzano is a highly sought speaker, trainer, and author of more than 30 books and 150 articles on a variety of educational topics. His research has been the guiding force in developing effective schools, and we are pleased to contract with ASCD for certified trainer, Judi Herm, to provide us with this workshop.

It will introduce the research based factors from Dr. Marzano's previous best selling series, What Works in Schools, and specifically refer to School, Teacher, and Student Factors that have been correlated with successful, productive learning.

Attendees should be able to:

- ✓ Establish and communicate learning goals, track student progress, and celebrate success.
- ✓ Help students effectively interact with new knowledge
- ✓ Facilitate students' practice and deepen understanding

Among the topics attendees will benefit from are the following:

- Instructional Strategies
  - . Identifying Similarities and Differences
  - . Summarizing and Note Taking
  - . Reinforcing Effort and Providing Recognition
  - . Nonlinguistic Representations
  - . Cooperative Learning
  - . Setting Objectives and Providing Feedback
  - . Cues, Questions, and Advance Organizers
- Classroom Management Strategies
- Classroom Curriculum Design
- Home Environment Factors
- Learned Intelligence and Background Knowledge
- Student Motivation

We've packed the most salient material at a great savings to you, so reserve your seat early and get the best experience! Registration for this workshop: $45.00

CPDU's (Continuing Professional Development Units) are available from this workshop, and a workbook will be provided with take away ideas!
