

Islamic High School Pre-Conference
ISNA Education Forum 2010

Topic: Guide to Starting Your High School
Date: Friday, April 2nd
Time: 9:00 am – 4:30 pm

Session I: The Need for Creating Islamic High Schools

Speaker: Dr. Mohammad Sadiq Time: 9:00 am – 10:30 am

The presenter will focus on the following areas:

- To review the need for Islamic schools;
- To discuss the developmental needs of children through their school age, especially focusing on 'teenage'; and
- To discuss how an Islamic high school can meet those developmental needs more appropriate thereby reducing unnecessary struggles that our youth generally go through public high schools.

Session II: The Basic Components & Requirements of a Successful High School:
The Nuts and Bolts of the First Year of Operation

Speaker: Ms. Farhat Siddiqui Time: 11:00 am – 12:30 pm

The presenter will focus on the following areas:

- Curricular Requirements & Different Educational Programs
- Staffing Needs
- Financial Planning
- Facility Requirements
- Handbook Content
- National Assessments
- Academic Guidance Requirements
- Accreditation

Session III: The Feasibility Study

Speaker: Ms. Magda Saleh Time: 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm

The presenter will focus on the following areas:

- Purpose of a Feasibility Study
- How to Conduct a Feasibility Study
- How to Interpret the Results of the Feasibility Study
- What Can be Learned/Gained from the Results of the Feasibility Study

Session IV: The Staging & Execution Plan

Speaker: Ms. Magda Saleh Time: 3:00 – 4:30 pm

The presenter will focus on the following areas:

- Major Areas of Concern with Solutions
- Developing a Manageable Time-Line for Success. Build your high school one grade every year.
- A-Z, Start-to-Finish Checklist: Ambitious yet Possible and Achievable

$45 Registration Fee

